CHAPTER 207.

An act to cede to the United States exclusive jurisdiction over Lassen volcanic national park, in the State of California.

[Approved by the Governor April 20, 1927. In effect July 29, 1927.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Jurisdiction over Lassen
Volcanic National Park.

SECTION 1. Exclusive jurisdiction shall be and the same is hereby ceded to the United States over and within all of the territory which is now or may hereafter be included in that tract of land in the State of California set aside and dedicated for park purposes by the United States as "Lassen volcanic national park," saving, however, to the State of California the right to serve civil or criminal process within the limits of the aforesaid park in suits or prosecutions for or on account of rights acquired, obligations incurred or crimes committed in said state outside of said park; and saving further, to the said state the right to tax persons and corporations and their property on the lands included in said park and the right to fix and collect license fees for fishing in said park, and saving also to the persons residing in said park now or hereafter the right to vote at all elections held within the county or counties in which said park is situated; provided, however, that jurisdiction shall not vest until the United States through the proper office notifies the State of California that they assume police jurisdiction over said park, and that the laws of the State of California and the jurisdiction of its courts shall remain in full effect in said park, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the laws of the United States, until congress shall specifically supersede them.

CHAPTER 208.

An act amending the Political Code by adding a new section thereto, to be numbered one thousand five hundred thirty-six, to establish a state curriculum commission for the public schools of the state.

[Approved by the Governor April 20, 1927. In effect July 29, 1927.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section.

SECTION 1. A new section, to be numbered 1536, is hereby added to the Political Code, to read as follows:

State curriculum commission created.

1536. First—A state curriculum commission is hereby created to consist of the superintendent of public instruction, and ten additional members appointed by the superintendent of public instruction with the approval of the state board of education. Among the appointive members there shall be at
